

ShabbaTTogether@Home

Below are the ShabbaTTogether@Home resources for you and your family to highlight the message of Inclusion and Mental Wellness before, during, and after shabbat in your home. It will stimulate conversations, discussions and many meaningful memories and positive experiences will be created for each participating family member.

Pre-Shabbat

#WeAllBelong@Home Window Mural by artist Yitzchok Mouly Print, cut, decorate and hang this special mural on your wall, window or any spot in your home that will enhance your ShabbaTTogether ambience. Check out the contest to win your own signed mural by the artist!

‘We All Belong’ Inclusion song by 8th Day With over 211,359 YouTube views and more than 25,000 Spotify downloads, play this song in your home before Shabbat to get in the spirit!

JEM Inclusion Video – A Reflection of G-D The Lubavitcher Rebbe was a fundamental advocate for inclusion, the potential in each individual, and how each person has a unique mission to fulfill. Enhance your perspective in only 10 minutes by seeing that people with disabilities have much to offer and can lead by example.

Inclusive@Home Challah Bake This Shabbat, enjoy this wonderful opportunity to create memories with your friends or family while building a tradition in a hands-on way highlighting how we all belong. Create your own special challahs and give one to a friend.

On Shabbat Remember to print all resources before Shabbat to enjoy them!

Family Mental Health Games Activities of introspection and communication using candies, cards, and an attitude of fun. An opportunity to engage with and get to know others, surprising us with the similarities we all have and learning how we can be supportive of one another.

Download Coping Skills BINGO and Worksheet
Disability Inclusion BINGO

Shalom Zone for Children, Teens & Young Adults The Shalom Zone is a guide to create a quiet space in your home to help self-regulate and calm down while dealing with strong emotions. It is meant to be a place to relax, recharge, or release pent-up anger or frustration.

Sparks of Wisdom – Inclusion Share this interactive discussion booklet with those around you that highlight the foundations of inclusion and understanding what others need.

Guidance for Families in Medical Crisis Practical advice on how to better support friends in crisis and how to support yourself in crisis.

@Home Sermon Your own personal sermon you can give at your family table or read on your own bringing inclusion and the Torah portion of the week together in a meaningful way.
